MEDICINAL.

BRAIN FOOD,

Not long since there was a great run on the fish markets because it was announced that fish was food for the brain. Of course the fallacy of the fad was soon exploded. Normally the food we eat nourishes brain, nerves, muscle, bones, etc., each part of the body assimilating phosphorous come sensitive it is a sign that there is a loss of the nutrition contained in the food eaten, and this loss is in salts, lime, according to its need. When the brain begins to show weakness or the nerves begeneral due to disease of the stomach, and its allied organs. Dr. Pierce's Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, which is the source of the strength of both brain and body.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free, on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. V.

During one of the dances Charley Hobbe stepped on Heyward Dunbar's foot. Hobbs spolog zed, but Dunbar reported to hie father, George R. Dunbar, who was in another room, that he had been insulted.

The father immediately drew his pistol and advanced into the room where Hobbs was dancing with a young woman. At the door be raised his utilal to shoot. The means a his pistol to shoot. The weapon was struck saide by a bystander, the bullet going wide of its mark and bitting Fietcher Bennet, one of the numer ons guests in the room.

Bennett fell to the floor severely wounded. He drew his pistol as he fell THE "3 DAYS" CURE and shot George R. Dunbar through the heart. Bennett continued firing the next victim of his pistol being Harry the eixteen year old son of George Dun bar, who dropped dead over his father' body.

A:thur Dunbar, another son of George R. Dunbar, was mortally wounded, and bas since died. The mother of the two young men received a bullet in the abdomen, but was saved from death by a steel in her corset, which broke the force of the missile.

George Danbsr Kirkland, nephew of Mrs. Dunbsr, now da-hed into the room. He saw the last shot fired by Bennett, and, drawing his pistol, rushing upon the wounded man. Bennett snapped his pistol, but it was empty. Bennett's brother was supporting the head of the man who had been dealing death.

As Kirkland approached, pistol in hend, Foster Beanett begged him not to about—pleaded for his brother's life. Kirkland ordered Foster Bennett to move saide or he would be killed also. under Fielcher Bennett's head and spraog aside.

The plan of the organization is to raise $100,000 and buy a big passenger steamship to send the colored people to Africa. The movement is characterized as the "first great forward step of the colored race since the emancipation." tion." Bishop Turner is the president of the new association, and Rev. William H. Heard, of Philadelphia, is the secretary. The latter was formerly United States Consul to Liberia.

Bishop Turner, in an address to his race on the proposed emigration scheme declared that emigration is the only remedy for the ills to which the negro in this country is subjected. He added:

"If a man is known to have in his velue a drop of negro blood, for any utile trival charge he is hung, shot, burned or mutilated. American justice does not any more regard him as en-titled to consideration than if he was a venemous saske. Sometimes I fear that there is more truth than poetry in the statement of the white man when he declares that the negro is of an inferior race. For any race that will submit to the abuses besped upon it, such as the negro is subjected to to-day, and virtually say nothing, is evidently very weak or very good. I am happy to say that there are enough with coursge and manhood to start this national movement who are not satisfied with the conditions that are pressing the life out of us in the United

COTILLON FIGURE TOO RISKY -Lexington, Ky., society is all astir over what is termed rudeness on the part of some of the male dancer at the cotillon. Society had arranged the figures, many of which were suggested by the opera "Dolly Vardea."

"Dolly Vardea,"

In one of the figures the young women who had charge of the affer had planned a pleasant surprise for the gentlemen which approached the limit of propriety. They had a screen streached scross the room, extending up some tenders of the figure and on one side. scross the room, extending up some ten inches from the floor, and on one side of this lady dancers seembled and held artifully for the admiration of the gentlemen dancers her ankles and feet.

To the tune of, "I Love Her Dainty Ankles and Her Feet" the gentlemen was to kneel by the pair of his choice.

New York Tribune Publica-tions.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE comes pretty near being an ideal rowspaper. It is clean without being dull, enterprising without being tensational, and as fair and accurate as human forethought and care can make it. THE TRIBUNE has positive convictions of its own on all the great questions of the day, but it is broad enough and liberal enough to give all reasonal opportunity to "hear the other side.

Every occurrence or development of sufficient importance to ongage the attention of self respecting, intelligent people is sure to find adequate treatment in THE TRIBUNE, self respecting, intelligent people is sure to find adequate treatment in THE TRIBUNE, by text or picture, or both.

What is true of The Daily Tribune applies with force, though in medified forms, to the other publications issued from The Tribune office. THE TRIBUNE WEEKLY REVIEW, issued every Saturday, erables persons living in the small towns or villages to keep in touch with the best thought of the nation, just as well as those at the educational centres. It records and reviews all the essential happenings of the week—the things that count in making up the lodger of progress. For sending to friends abroad you cannot find anything better.

THE TRIBUNE FARMER is, as its name implies, devoted to the interests of farmers and their families. It is meant to be their friend, saviser and helper in the fullest meaning of the words, bringing to them all the available facts and information calculated to sid them. And special care is taken to provide interesting roading matter for the women and young folks. $1 a year.

THE TRIBUNE WEEKLY TRIBUNE is, if the phrase may be permitted, the "beef tea" of THE DAILY TRIBUNE. In the three issues of each week it summarizes THE DAILY TRIBUNE, while giving in their entirety many of the very best features and tilustrations. For those who have neither the time nor the means to indulge in a metropolitan daily newspaper, and yet want to get all the news of the world treated from a national point of view, THE TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is just the paper. Price $1.50 a year.
